

I want you to know that to weaken the Do Not Call List law in New Jersey is a major disservice to the residents of our state. Since signing onto the list I have had a near 100% reduction in the number of telemarketing calls. This has made my home life just a little less stressful and I would be very angry to lose this peacefulness that the State Legislature has granted me.